Information about the town and/or neighborhood:

Seville is one of the most beautiful and important cities in Andalusia, a region in the South of Spain.

The weather is pleasant (apart from the very hot summers) and life is affordable.

The good weather, excellent food, its culture and tradition and the kindness of its people, make Seville one of the best cities in Spain to live in. Seville is known for its vibrant culture, including flamenco, tapas, and the annual Feria de Abril. Be sure to explore these traditions!

Mairena del Aljarafe is very close to Seville ( 6 kilometers far) and it is a lovely place too.

Tram: The tram line runs through the city centre, connecting the Plaza Nueva with San Bernardo.

- Biking

Sevici: Seville is a bike-friendly city with extensive cycling paths. Sevici is a public bike-sharing system with various subscription options, ideal for getting around quickly.

Buying a Bike: You can buy a new or second-hand bike from local stores or online platforms like Wallapop.

Accommodation

Where to stay in Seville?

As Mairena del Aljarafe is quite near Seville, many language assistants tend to stay in the city.

- Finding a Place to Stay

Neighborhoods: Popular areas for foreign language assistants include Triana, Alameda, and Nervión. These neighborhoods offer a mix of affordability, cultural richness, and convenience.

- Online Resources: Websites like Idealista, Fotocasa, and Pisos.com are excellent for finding rental accommodations. Consider joining local Facebook groups for expats and language assistants in Seville.
- Rental Costs: Expect to pay around €400-€600 per month, depending on the neighborhood and the type of accommodation (shared apartments are more affordable).

Accommodation in Mairena del Aljarafe

- Neighborhoods: The town is divided into several neighborhoods, with Ciudad Expo and Simón Verde being some of the most popular. These areas offer a range of apartments and houses, often at more affordable prices than Seville.

Local Amenities: Mairena del Aljarafe has all the essential services, including supermarkets, gyms, healthcare centres, and parks. The Metromar shopping centre is a local hub, with a variety of shops, restaurants, and a cinema.
